

I Will Change the World By...

Art Activity

Take your paper and draw a circle in the middle. This is going to be your "world." You can decorate with shapes or words that mean something to you. You can make it look like a real place, or make it abstract.

I Will Change the World By...

Art Activity

Make 4 shapes—they can be any combination that you like (circles, squares, hearts, stars, wiggles, etc).

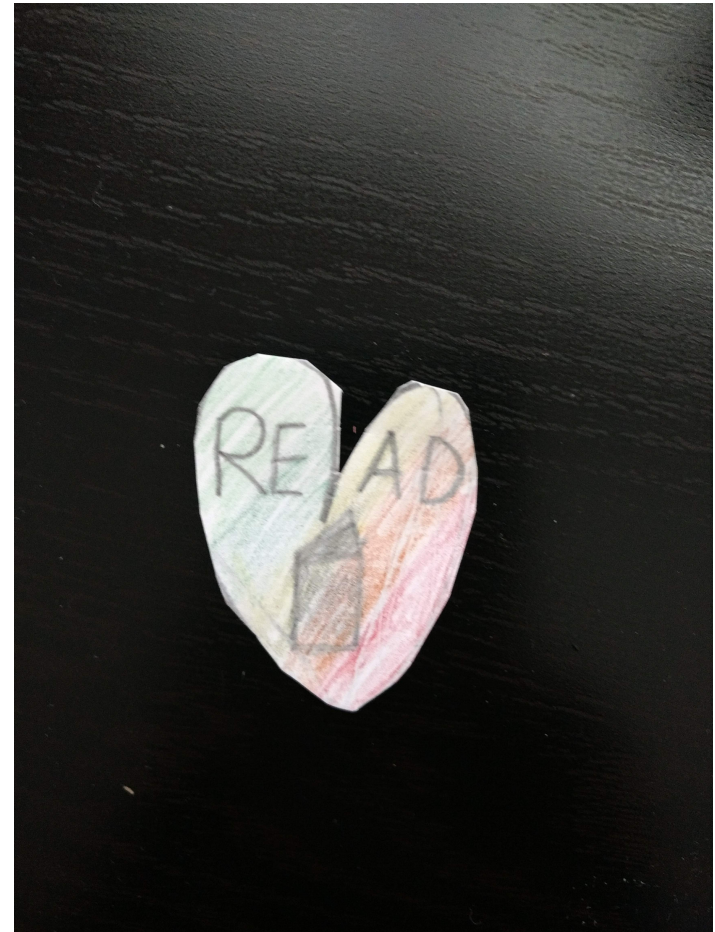

Write your name inside one of the shapes. You can add color or decorations.

I Will Change the World By...

Art Activity

In the next shape, write or draw something that you think you do well or an activity you really like to do (making music, skateboarding, reading, swimming, etc).

I Will Change the World By...

Art Activity

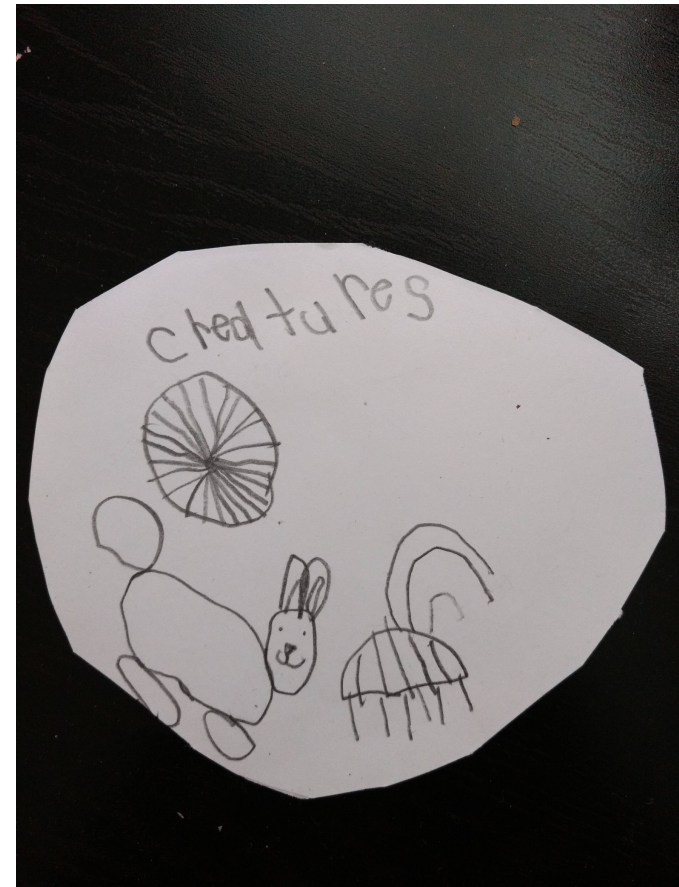

In the next shape, write the name of, or draw something that represents a person, pet or someone else that cares about you or helps you in some way (parent, friend, teacher, pet, someone you admire)

I Will Change the World By...

Art Activity

In the last shape, write or draw something that makes you happy inside, anything that you enjoy (ice cream, waterfalls, long walks, etc).

I Will Change the World By...

Art Activity

At this point, you can decorate and color in all your circles and shapes if you want. When you're done with that, you can either cut them all out or just draw some connecting lines to the circle in the middle. If you've cut them out, then you can glue or tape them onto the "world" or arrange and attach them all to another piece of paper.

I Will Change the World By...

Art Activity

Now that we have them all together, we can find another answer to how we can change the world!

Some of your sentences might be funny, some might feel really true, but I'm hoping that whether your sentence is serious or silly, that it makes you smile!

I, [name], will change the world by [activity], and with the help of [someone], I'm going to make the world a place where more people get to [thing you like]!